The audio files are then yours to copy, distribute, use, alter, sell or do with what you want as long as they are not used for activities that are illegal in your country.

THIS IS A SYSTEM IN BETA TESTING STAGE. That means that the likelihood of functionality failing due to bugs in the software, running either on the server or in the web browser, is higher than that of a fully production ready system. During the beta stage the software will be regularly updated, which renders server communication impossible for 10-30 seconds on average, some times more. Sessions are kept during updates so if server communication fails you should stay on the page and wait a while before you try again. Licensor will try to keep system down-time to a minimum but is giving NO GUARANTEES whatsoever for the up-time or proper functioning of this service. This includes, but is not limited to, loss or corruption of uploaded audio or other content before, during or after the purchase or sale.
